

HYER FAMILY LEAVES CITY

Completing Residence of 15 Years in Stevens Point, They Depart for Whitewater to Make Future Home

TAKES PRESIDENCY OF NORMAL

Mr. Hyer, Educator of National Reputation, Assumes Charge of Big State School

After 15 years' residence in Stevens Point—years in which they have won a warm and lasting place in the hearts of scores of local residents and contributed much to the social life of the city—Prof. Frank S. Hyer and family left Saturday for Whitewater, where Mr. Hyer will assume the duties of president of the State Normal school.

Promotion Unsolicited

Mr. Hyer was recently chosen to the presidency of the Whitewater Normal by the board of normal regents and he resigned as principal of the training school of the Stevens Point Normal in order to accept the new position. The choice of Mr. Hyer for the Whitewater vacancy, where he succeeds A. H. Yoder, resigned, was entirely unsolicited on his part. There were neither candidates nor applicants for the Whitewater post and the position was offered to Mr. Hyer after his record as an educator had been thoroughly investigated and the board had decided that, by ability, training, experience and temperament, he was eminently qualified to assume the duties of the position. It was only on the day before the meeting of the board of regents at Madison at which Mr. Yoder's successor was chosen that Mr. Hyer was asked if he would accept the place. When he gave an affirmative answer he was asked to go to Whitewater at once, and he was in that city at the time the board took formal action on the vacancy.

Is Self-Made Man

Frank S. Hyer is a self-made man, whose reputation as an educator is national in extent. He was born at Aztalan, Jefferson county, Wisconsin, in 1869, attended the rural school of his home district and later the high schools at Port Atkinson and Lake Mills. Subsequently he was graduated from the Milwaukee State Normal and Ripon college and did graduate work at the University of Wisconsin.

Mr. Hyer began teaching in the rural schools of Jefferson county in 1887 and served as principal of the graded schools of Milford, Jefferson county, and Oshkosh, Polk county. Later he was a teacher in the city schools of Green Bay, county superintendent of schools of Jefferson county, principal of a ward school at Sheboygan and principal of the high school and city superintendent of schools at Rhinelander. Leaving Rhinelander he organized the county training school for teachers at Manitowish and was its principal for three years.

Came Here in 1904

In 1904 Mr. Hyer came to Stevens Point to take the position of institute conductor made vacant when Prof. J. W. Livingston was elected president of the Plattville Normal school. In 1909 he assumed the principalship of the training school of the local state institution, in which position he had since served and where his work demonstrated his marked ability as a constructive educator.

Immediately after coming to Stevens Point he began the work of organizing a department of manual training, in which subject he has always been deeply interested. For five years thereafter he furnished many of the required tools for the work and conducted classes outside of regular school hours. The board of regents then took the matter in hand, made a suitable appropriation with which to make the department a regular feature of the school's curriculum and placed a teacher in charge.

For five years Mr. Hyer was principal of the summer sessions at the Stevens Point Normal, and to him is due much of the credit for the success of this feature of the school's work. Outside of Stevens Point, however, he is best known as an institute conductor and his services as such have been in such great demand in this and other states that he has been unable to fill all engagements he has been offered. He conducted his first institute in 1891 and every year since has had charge of work of this kind throughout the middle west and west.

Mr. Hyer has been a member of the Wisconsin State Teachers' association for 25 years, serving for several years as a member of the executive committee of that organization. He is also a member of the executive committee of the Central Wisconsin Teachers' association.

A set of methods readers and a system of teaching phonics, both of which are widely used throughout the country, are works of Mr. Hyer.

Active in Community

Mr. Hyer's sphere of usefulness has extended far beyond his class-rooms, and as a community worker he will be greatly missed in Stevens Point, where he has lived for 15 years.

HAVE MODERN HOME

H. E. Sievwright Family Move Into New Bungalow on Ellis Street

H. E. Sievwright and family are now getting settled in their modern new bungalow on Ellis street, just east of the Geo. W. Cate homestead, which latter property is also owned by Mr. Sievwright.

Over the full basement, which has a clear space of eight feet above the concrete floor, there are two floors, the first containing a spacious office for the H. E. Sievwright Lumber Co., a living room, dining room, kitchen, bedroom, closet, toilet and pantry. The upper story is divided into six rooms, bath and a hallway, five of the rooms being supplied with good sized closets. The lower floor wood-work has been given a finish known as silver birch while the upper rooms have satin finish.

The building, which covers ground space 30x44 feet, is ornamented by a ten foot porch extending across the front or north side. At the rear of the lot is a garage eighteen feet wide and amply deep for two cars.

Both structures were erected by day labor under the careful supervision of the new owner.

QUICK TIME IS MADE IN MARKETING GRAIN

The possibility of the motor truck as a means of marketing farmers' products is evidenced by the experience of George H. Sutherland, who has a tract of land in the Portage County Drainage district. Mr. Sutherland had 6,225 pounds of rye for market and it was loaded and delivered at the plant of the Jackson Milling company in this city in 55 minutes. The Jackson Milling company motor truck happened to be out that way and it was used to transport the grain. The grain was sold for $1.46 a bushel, or a total of $102.29.

RECEPTION BY MASONS FOR PRESIDENT HYER

Informal Farewell Gathering Held Friday Evening Complimentary to Educator on Occasion of His Departure

Members of the local Masonic bodies entertained at the Masonic club rooms on Friday evening complimentary to Prof. Frank S. Hyer, who has resigned as principal of the Stevens Point Normal training school to accept the presidency of the Whitewater Normal. The evening was spent informally and was in the nature of a farewell reception. Mr. Hyer arrived in the city Friday from Mitchell, S. D., where he conducted a teachers' institute this week and left with his family today for Whitewater.

More than 100 Masons met to bid Mr. Hyer a farewell and at 9 o'clock the men assembled in the dining hall, where a luncheon was served under the direction of J. D. Giles. It was followed by introductory remarks by M. M. Ames, who introduced Mayor W. F. Owen as speaker of the evening.

Mayor Owen addressed his remarks to Mr. Hyer, stating that it was with sorrow that those present were bidding him good-bye and wishing him good speed. He established the point that in all human progress the breaking up of old ties and forming of new ones have been necessary. He paid a high compliment to Mr. Hyer, stating that he had earned and received the commendation of the members of Evergreen lodge over which he had in the past presided as worshipful master for two terms. As a token of esteem, Mr. Hyer was then presented with an emblematic Masonic ring. In closing Mr. Owen said: "We are glad that you have a greater field to display the talent you have displayed here and you will go forth bearing the good wishes of the members of this lodge."

Mr. Hyer responded with a short talk. "There can never be a town as dear to me as Stevens Point," he said. "I came here in the blush of young manhood 15 years ago. This town will always be the home of Mrs. Hyer and my children. The support and good wishes which you have extended to me will mean much to me. I am proud, after 30 years of teaching work in Wisconsin, to be called 'home' by the normal board of regents. I was brought up just 18 miles from the Whitewater Normal school, the second oldest Normal in the state, and I am proud to go back there as its president and shall attempt to perform the duties which the Normal regents have entrusted to me."

PERSHING REFUSES COMMITTEE REQUEST

Commander of American Expeditionary Forces Refuses to Testify Before Congressional Committee

(By United Press)

Paris, August 30—General Pershing refused today to testify before the congressional committee inquiring into American war expenditures in France.

Following Pershing's refusal, Congressman Bland, chairman of the committee, issued a statement declaring Pershing's action was typical of the war department's indifference toward and contempt for the wishes of the people.

General Pershing, replying to Bland, said he had no desire to conceal the records of the American Expeditionary Forces, which were open in every way. He added, however, that on the eve of his departure for home it was physically impossible to grant the committee's request, which would necessitate the unpacking of all records relating to the A. E. F.

The association, as its name implies, seeks to afford protection of fish and game in Portage county by enforcement of laws and prosecution of offenders, and its work can only be successfully carried out through a large active membership.

AN INTERESTING TALK

Prominent Fox Broker Speaks on Subject of Fox Farming on Friday Evening

John A. Lea of Summerside, Prince Edward's Island, gave an interesting talk at Boston's store on Friday evening on the subject of fox farming. He came here from Wausau, where the Wausau Silver Black Fox Ranch has just been started, and was accompanied to this city by two of the stockholders of the new Marathon county company, Mr. Lea accompanied a shipment of silver black foxes from Prince Edward's Island to Wausau. The value of the shipment is $15,000.

Mr. Lea traced the history of the silver black fox raising industry for the past 200 years, showing its success financially and giving the reasons for failures which have occurred. He explained in detail the growth of the industry, and gave figures showing the increased demand for the pelts.

Several local men are considering a plan to organize a silver black fox ranch here and subscriptions for shares of stock are being taken. Wilis Boston is promoting the movement and has purchased a pair of the foxes. Mr. Lea came to Stevens Point on his invitation. Forty men heard his talk on Friday evening.

SOCIALIST LEADERS IN STORMY MEETING

Factional Troubles Crop Out at First Meeting of Party Since United States Entered the World War

(By United Press)

Chicago, August 30—Leaders of factions in the socialist party, in convention for the first time since the United States went to war, today prepared for the tussle to decide whether the so-called radical left wing or the conservative right shall dominate and to shape the future policies of the socialist party.

The meeting came near breaking up last night even before it officially started when numerous members were forcibly ejected from the hall. Conservatives said a small minority had announced the intention of making the gathering a "Bolshevik barbecue" unless the radical demands are upheld.

The names of Eugene V. Debs and Kate O'Hara, now serving prison sentences for violations of the espionage act, were frequently mentioned as probable candidates for nomination for president and vice president, respectively.

CASTOFFS IN BASEBALL SOMETIMES LAUGH LAST

Rudolph, Marquard, Cicotte and Others Among Those Who Have Made Good

(By United Press)

New York, August 30—It was Dick Rudolph who was mainly responsible for the Braves' roughshod treatment of the Giants in 1914.

Milton Stock had quite a little finger in the 1915 pie the Phillies cur. In 1916, Rube Marquard had something of importance to do with the winning of a pennant by the Dodgers.

In 1917 Eddie Cicotte ruffled the Red Sox by hefting the White Sox into a world's championship. What's it all about?

Nothing much except that Dick Rudolph was tossed off by the Giants, and so were Stock and Marquard. Cicotte was spurned by the Red Sox in the past ages. And Bill Rariden, Heinie Groh, Eddie Rousch and Slim Sallee, now championing for Cincinnati, were blown off by the Giants.

The Giants paid $40,000 for Arthur Nehf—or so it claimed. Judged by that what is Babe Ruth worth?

Nehf lost his first two starts for the Giants, although he pitched fairly well in both pastimes. Both games were vital in the averages of the floundering New Yorkers. In one of them the Reds punched him full of holes and climbed out another game.

And only a few short months ago he was promising to defend his title whenever a worthy opponent appeared.

Perhaps Willie Meehan isn't worthy in the eyes of Dempsey, but he holds a couple of decisions over the world's champion, and the public would like to know how about it. Alas, there is Billy Miske.

SEASON ENDS SUNDAY

It will be unlawful to fish trout after Sunday until the opening of the 1920 season next spring. Many big catches of trout have been made on central Wisconsin streams during the past summer months.

Twenty inches was the length and three pounds the weight of a rainbow trout successfully landed by L. D. Richards on Thursday evening. The catch was made in one of the ditches in the Portage County Drainage district.

FIGHT ON TREATY DUE NEXT WEEK

Struggle in Senate Foreign Relations Committee Over Reservations Expected to Reach High Pitch

(By United Press)

Washington, August 30—A sharp struggle in the senate foreign relations committee over the form of treaty reservations when the subject is taken up early next week was forecast here today.

Republican views on reservations vary widely. Senator Lodge, chairman of the committee, is confronted with the task of reconciling the ideas of Senator McCumber with those of Senators Knox and Brandagee, for instance. Again, Lodge's own ideas do not strictly match those of Knox, and there are the "irrevocables," Johnson, Borah and Fall, who must be reckoned with. Democrats will take no part in reservation-making except in the adoption of the textual amendments, which, being powerless to stop, they will merely oppose to the limit of their voting power.

With but one more amendment in sight, reservations will come up early next week and the committee hopes to get the treaty reported by Wednesday or Thursday. The vital and truly important committee work is now in sight, many members feel. One amendment yet before the committee is that of Senator Fall striking out the labor clauses. The committee adopted three others late yesterday, thus nearly cleaning the slate of textual changes proposed.

Republicans were to meet today to try to decide on plans for stumping the country in opposition to President Wilson, who starts Wednesday on his speaking tour in behalf of the peace treaty and the League of Nations' covenant. They have been unable thus far to determine how many senators shall go and when and where. Senator Lodge is trying to discourage the whole idea by pointing out that those opposed to the treaty and league covenant can get better results from remaining in Washington and answering the president from the floor of the senate.

Steel Crisis Serious

Washington, August 30—Intervention of the president today appeared to be the only thing that will avert a strike of union workers in the steel industry if they attempt to carry out their threats.

The time limit given Judge Gary, head of the United States Steel corporation, for reply to the last letter of the steel workers' committee requesting a conference, has expired without a reply being received. The committee had informed Gary that they could be reached at the National Hotel, Washington, until last night. They waited until a late hour, whereupon Secretary Foster announced he was taking a train for home.

Early today, when a reply was still lacking, John Fitzpatrick, head of the committee, declared there was nothing more to be done.

Washington, August 30—Suspension of exports of foodstuffs or licensing of such exports after the strictest scrutiny would lower the cost of living with the 90-day "truce" period established by labor, in the opinion of William D. Colver, chairman of the federal trade commission. He said: "There is no single cause for the high cost of living, therefore there is no panacea. This is the only nation on earth that permits foodstuffs to be used as poker chips."

American Food Spoiling?

Washington, August 30—Officials here today are investigating reports that big shipments of American food are spoiling in England because of the strike of transport workers has congested docks and wharves. Food shipped from New York and Boston is reported piled high on the docks at Liverpool and Southampton. Meantime Attorney General Palmer is awaiting action of congress on the proposed amendment to the Lever food control bill providing jail sentences for profiteers.

Sit Tight, Says Wilson

Washington, August 30—"The main thing to do is to sit tight in the boat," President Wilson told the governors' committee which called on him yesterday, according to Governor W. C. Sproul of Pennsylvania today.

Government Will Make Good

Chicago, August 30—The United States government will fulfill its promise to labor to lower living costs within 90 days so as to be appreciably felt by the public, according to R. A. Murray, assistant United States district attorney in charge of Chicago's drive against high prices and profiteers.

PRESIDENT TO VISIT 30 CITIES ON TOUR

Itinerary of Wilson's Trip in Behalf of League of Nations and Peace Treaty is Officially Announced

(By United Press)
Washington, August 29—The itinerary of President Wilson on his tour on behalf of the peace treaty and the league of nations covenant, officially given out today, calls for visits to 30 cities in 21 states. The route to be followed will cover approximately 10,000 miles and the trip will last 27 days. The itinerary reveals how the president has planned his journey to carry the fight into the territory of the bitterest enemies of the treaty and the league. He will confine his tour to the west and middle west, from which sections comes some of the strongest opposition.

Report Treaty Soon
Washington, August 29—Next Wednesday, the day President Wilson departs on his tour, has now been fixed as the probable date for completion of work on the peace treaty in the senate foreign relations committee. Republican leaders do not wish the president to be able to tell the country that the committee is holding up the treaty, for even though they would regard such a statement as unfair, they fear, they said today, that it might be believed in some quarters. The republican position has been that the president and not they are responsible for any delay in the committee's report.

Mr. Warner will fill the vacancy created by the resignation of C. E. Nebel last year.

Miss Minnie Horn, a graduate of the Stevens Point Normal, has been engaged as teacher of academic work. She taught at Bay City, Wis., last year, but is also completing a course at Stout Institute this week and will arrive in the city Saturday. STATEWIDE INTEREST IN DAMAGE ACTION (By United Press)

Waterford, August 29—Statewide interest is developing in the suit for $10,000 brought against Dr. F. A. Malone of this city by John L. Arnold, administrator of the estate of Barney G. Weber, killed in a collision with Dr. Malone's car.

The monetary phases of the suit hold little interest, but the human interest lies in the fact that at the time of the fatal accident Dr. Malone was driving to a Milwaukee hospital in a race with the clock. His passengers were Mrs. Anna Jacobson of this city and her nurse. Though all three were injured seriously, Mrs. Jacobson gave birth to a fine, healthy child shortly after.

Dr. Malone brought a counter suit for $15,000 against the estate of Weber for the injuries he received. The accident happened near Milwaukee February 7.

SAYS RYAN BLAMELESS FOR WAR EXTRAVAGANCE (By United Press)

Washington, August 29—John D. Ryan, former director of aircraft production, had nothing to do with the building of an extension of the Milwaukee railroad, in which he is heavily interested, into spruce forests, according to former Brigadier General Disque in a letter to Senator Thomas, Colorado. The letter was made public today following publication of a report by the Frear house investigating committee charging that Ryan wasted money while developing spruce production in the Pacific northwest for building aircraft.

Big Shortage in Wool

In this country about six hundred million pounds of wool are utilized annually in the manufacture of textile fabrics. Yet we only produce about three hundred million pounds. Therefore our manufacturers are compelled to enter foreign markets for wool. We ought to raise all our own wool. This country has all the advantages for raising wool. Why not raise some sheep? The increase and the wool ought to pay for the sheep the first year. Call at the Dafoe farm two miles southwest of this city. Look over the twenty-six hundred large, well bred-up one-year-old breeding ewes, and take ten or more sheep. We will help you. Talk it over with Mr. Dunegan.

NURSE BEGINS WORK MONDAY

Miss Mary Hanley of Gettysburg, South Dakota, is Engaged For Health Work in Stevens Point

COMES HIGHLY RECOMMENDED

Has Had Broad Experience, Including Year in Base Hospital in France

Miss Mary Hanley of Gettysburg, South Dakota, has been engaged by the Stevens Point Woman's club and the city of Stevens Point for the position of school nurse. Miss Hanley arrived in the city Saturday, was entertained by Mrs. F. E. Walbridge at River Pines over Sunday and commenced her duties at the opening of school on Monday.

Recommended Very Highly

Dr. E. V. Brumbaugh of Milwaukee, director of formal education and an intensive worker with the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis association, had the following to say of Miss Hanley prior to her engagement for work in Stevens Point:

"If you can get Miss Hanley you will secure a woman thoroughly competent and exceedingly well qualified for the work of school nurse. Miss Hanley worked under my supervision when I was in the Milwaukee health department and is experienced in inspection of school children tuberculosis and child hygiene work. She also served one year in France in base hospital No. 22. I consider her one of the best candidates that have been looking for a position during the past year, but it will require immediate action to secure her services as there are more than a dozen positions open today and not one to fill them."

Committee Acts Promptly

Acting under Dr. Brumbaugh's advice, the committee acted immediately. The schools of Stevens Point are extremely fortunate to be under the guidance of a competent health worker, and pupils, parents and teachers should most heartily show their appreciation by giving Miss Hanley their full co-operation," said one of the leading advocates of the school nurse plan.

Woman's Club Helps

The Woman's club was instrumental in securing passage of the resolution by the common council authorizing the engagement of a school nurse. The club has also made it possible for the city schools to have the nurse's services for the last four months of the year, a fund having been raised to pay her salary during that period.

REGENTS MAKE RULING

Relationship of County and State Normals is Established

The board of normal regents has made an important ruling regarding high school graduates who take the one-year course in county normal schools. It is as follows:

"Re-vised, that high school graduates who take an additional year in the county normal school be permitted to finish the advanced two-year course in the state normal schools in one year plus one summer session."

The advantages of attending the county normal school instead of going direct to the state normal are enumerated under four heads: (1) Cheaper for the student, the student remains near home, the student is given opportunity to discover his or her fitness to teach, and a certificate is given at the end of the course which enables a graduate to teach and earn money to continue his or her education. Graduates from the two-year course are admitted to a state normal school without examination and given credit not to exceed one and one-half years on the advanced course.

McDONALD'S FLOWERS

ARE MUCH ADMIRER

Flowers raised by R. K. McDonald at his West side home have for several years been much admired. This year Mr. McDonald has been particularly successful with gladioli, of which he has numerous varieties, including many rare ones. He had a display of gladioli at the fair last week, together with a showing of dahlias, and it attracted much attention. The display covered a large table and was a beautiful feature of the fair.

PURCHASE REGISTERED BOAR

Walter and Henry Welch, two of Portage county's most progressive farmers, have joined the "100 per cent pure bred sire club" by purchasing a registered pure bred Duroc Jersey boar. The boar, which was purchased through the First National bank, has already been delivered. The Welch brothers have a fine farm in Stockton and are specializing in pure bred stock. ORDERS COMING SLOW

Sale of Government Foods Here Fails to Attract Any Great Number of Buyers

The people of Stevens Point are showing little interest at the present time in the sale of government foods by the war department. The announcement that Stevens Point had been awarded an allotment of foodstuffs was received with interest, and it was expected that the supply for the city would soon be exhausted. This has failed to be the case, however.

Not a single order was taken at the postoffice on Thursday. On Wednesday the orders totaled $50. Thursday was the first day since the sale opened that no purchases were made.

Asked what he believed was the reason for the failure of Stevens Pointers to purchase more foodstuffs from the government's grab-bag, Assistant Postmaster R. C. Porter said: "I don't believe the people see the advantages offered in the sale. The foods are being sold cheap and money can be saved by their purchase."

COMPLETE STUDIES AFTER HARD FIGHT

Dodo H. Ecke, Native of Stevens Point, is Graduated as Physician and Surgeon from Rush Medical College

Dodo H. Ecke, a native of Stevens Point, the youngest of five sons of Louis Ecke, a resident of this city for many years, has joined the ranks of the medical fraternity, having been graduated Friday from Rush Medical college, which is affiliated with the University of Chicago.

Mr. Ecke was born in this city on December 19, 1887. Soon after the death of his mother in 1890, he was taken to Dancy. As he grew to youth and young manhood he worked at various occupations, from delivering newspapers to a job in the woods. He put himself to any sort of honorable employment to earn money with which to gain his education. The school of hard knocks was to him the experience that hammered and shaped him for higher things, so today he has lifted himself up from the bottom of the ladder of achievement.

Mr. Ecke graduated with honors from the Fond du Lac High school on June 6, 1906, and subsequently worked on the R. Connor farm at Auburndale to earn money with which to enter the University of Wisconsin, where he began a pre-medical course in the fall of 1907. In the year 1909 he was registered for medical training at the University of Wisconsin. After completing one year's school work he was compelled to withdraw and replenish his funds. He went to Willows, Calif., where he engaged in farming for five years. In 1916 he entered the University of Chicago and received the degree of bachelor of science from that institution in the summer of 1917. Continuing his medical studies, his health became impaired under the strain and he was again compelled to lay down his work. He went west to the Rocky Mountain country to regain his health and in six months returned to complete his studies, graduating with the degree of medicine and surgery.

Mr. Ecke will enter Milwaukee County hospital as an interne for the period of one year, ending September 1, 1920. He has made his home for the past two years with his brother, Dr. Arthur C. Ecke, Chicago.

FORMER TEACHER HIRED

Mrs. Bessie Guyant Accepts Position as Teacher in One of Belmont's Schools

Mrs. Bessie Guyant of Route 1, Waukegan, has been engaged as teacher in the rural school in District No. 4, Belmont, Portage county. It is the school in which she taught before her marriage, and unusual circumstances attend her return there this year.

The district school board, having only one applicant for the position, was unsuccessful in filling the vacancy which was created by the resignation of last year's teacher. The applicant accepted another position leaving the board without even a prospect of a teacher. Its members then decided to make an offer to Mrs. Guyant, former teacher of their district, and she was finally induced to accept the position for this year. Her salary will be $75 per month, an amount considerably higher than has been paid at that school in the past. The school opens for the fall session next Monday.

S. E. Sawyer is the school clerk, Fred Rogers the treasurer and John Peterson the director.

Although the railroad men at Los Angeles are continuing the strike in sympathy with the Pacific Electric strikers, the prediction was made that they would end the walkout sometime this afternoon.

FORMER POLONIA PASTOR HONORED

Rev. Fr. Malkowski Has a Remarkable Career as Money Raiser Debt Payer and Builder of Church Property

NOW LOCATED AT TWO RIVERS

His Longest Pastorate of Twelve Years Was Spent in Portage County

A splendid tribute to the service record of Rev. Father Theophil Malkowski of Two Rivers, for 12 years pastor of the Sacred Heart church at Polonia, is paid in this morning's issue of the Milwaukee Journal, under a Two Rivers, Wis., date line. Rev. Fr. Malkowski is widely known in Portage county, and the story of his remarkable career and his earnest efforts which have been fruitful in the building of places of worship and Christian education, is told in the following paragraphs:

"The Rev. Father Theophil Malkowski, Sacred Heart church, Two Rivers, for 37 years pastor of Polish Catholic churches in Wisconsin, has had a remarkable career as a money raiser, debt payer and builder of church property."

"He has served country churches and city churches, with congregations large and small, but almost without exception they have been needy churches, with financial problems to meet."

Educated in Poland

"Educated in Poland, Father Malkowski came to Wisconsin as a young priest and was first assigned to St. Michael's congregation Wausau, in 1882. The congregation needed a church building and he raised $5,000 in six months, getting only $500 from members of his own parish. Much of the money he found in Chicago, but he traveled extensively through the state in his campaign."

Given New Task

"His task completed in Wausau, the bishop transferred him to New Franken, Brown county, where he began the erection of St. Cyril's church. Nearly 200 cords of stone had been put in place when an unfortunate campaign against unruly saloonkeepers started a movement against the pastor and he asked for a transfer. A few miles away was the little country church of the Blessed Trinity, which is 10 miles east of Green Bay on the Manitowish road. With his own money he purchased a main altar and railings for the church at a cost of $500 and made a personal offering of the crucifix which still stands in the church cemetery."

Separate Bell Tower

"In the rear of Blessed Trinity church stands one of the few separate bell towers in use in this state. It is of form and style common across the water. Father Malkowski had the bell removed from the church belfry, sent it to the makers for repair and purchased two other bells to match it in tone, using his own money for the purpose and contributing largely to the cost of the tower in which the chimies were installed."

Organizes New Parish

"While serving this parish he organized St. Mary's congregation in Green Bay purchasing for its use a heavily mortgaged building from Bishop Vilot of the Old Catholic church. He served both congregations alternating the masses until 1889, when he was transferred to Casimir, Portage county, and during the seven months he was there built a mission church at the nearby village of Torun."

Splendid Record Here

"Going to Menasha the following year, he built the church of St. John the Baptist, and three years later was transferred to Hoffa Park near Seymour, where he built a four room school building and hastened on to Polonia, Portage county, where the Polish Catholic congregation had a $40,000 debt on its church property. Polonia and Father Malkowski got along very well for 12 years—his longest pastorate—and when he left the debt had been reduced to $4,000 and a new parsonage had been erected which represented an investment larger than the remaining indebtedness."

"Three years ago he went to Antigo for a rest as there was no money-raising campaign in prospect. But the war came on and there was money a plenty to be raised. He was active in all the financial campaigns, his work in the campaign for Polish relief being particularly successful, the Antigo Press giving him credit for raising a fund of $4,000 practically unassisted, and making generous personal contributions in all campaigns. "But Two Rivers needed such a man. A new heating plant is needed for the new school. Though he has been at the new charge only since the latter part of June, approximately a fourth of the $5,000 needed has been subscribed."

GOMPERS SEES PRESIDENT REGARDING STEEL TRADE

(By United Press) Washington, August 29—Samuel Gompers, head of the American Federation of Labor, was to see President Wilson this afternoon at 3 o'clock to discuss labor conditions in the steel trade. It was considered likely Gompers might suggest that the president use his influence to get Judge Gary, head of the United States Steel corporation, to meet a committee representing union employees of the corporation, a move Gary has declined to make.

SPUD VACATION SOON

Rural Schools to Close Temporarily while Children Help in the Potato Fields

Many rural schools of Portage county which opened recently for the fall term, are soon to close again for the potato vacation, which varies in length from two weeks to a month. A few schools which have not yet opened will operate on an eight-months schedule, not beginning the fall term until October 1. Eight months is the minimum required by the state, although many of Portage county's schools are in session for nine months.

The potato vacation is held each fall in potato digging time in order that the country boys and girls can assist in the harvest of the crop. School work is suspended for the time being, and attention is devoted to the work of the season. Schools are closed generally throughout the county during September, the time of the potato vacation depending upon the season.

Some of the rural schools were closed on Monday in observance of Labor day, while others held the regular sessions, depending upon the decision reached by the district school boards and the teachers. A few schools will be in session on Monday, and an extra day will be taken at the time of the Thanksgiving vacation.

A new cell wing will be completed soon at the state prison at Waupun and bids have been called for to remodel the school for the deaf at Delevan at a cost of $90,000.

RHODES SCHOLARSHIP CREATES BIG DEMAND

With Two Appointments to be Made from Wisconsin and Restrictions Lowered, Students Show Interest

(By United Press)

Prospects are that the number of applications for election of two Rhodes scholars from Wisconsin will exceed all previous record, said Arthur B. Doe, secretary of the Wisconsin Rhodes scholarship committee, today.

This is due principally, said Mr. Doe, to the fact that admissions to the high scholastic honor no longer requires that the applicant be required to show knowledge of Greek. This one requirement barred 90 per cent of high class scholars, say Wisconsin educators. The war interrupted the routine of Rhodes scholarship appointments and for that reason Wisconsin is among the states which this year will supply two instead of one.

Another interesting phase of the Rhodes scholarship appointment is that the method of election has been changed. Heretofore the practice has been of election of the leading state colleges selected from among these by a committee of college or university heads.

The selection now is made by a Rhodes scholarship committee composed of the president of the leading educational institutions in the state and of three Rhodes scholars. The Wisconsin committee includes President E. A. Birge, University of Wisconsin, Doe, Dr. Wilson, recently of New Hampshire but who joins the University of Wisconsin faculty this year, and John Custer, formerly of West Virginia, now of Lawrence college.

Miss Frances Anderson left this noon for Washburn, where she has been engaged to teach another year in the public schools of that city.

I had sharp twinges through my kidneys and they were not acting right at all. In the morning I felt more tired than when I went to bed. I was discouraged, nervous and all worn out. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Taylor Bros' Drug Store and the first box relieved me. I didn't have to use any kidney medicine for six months after and then I again took Doan's. After I used three boxes, I was cured and I have had no further need of them since."
